Regarding the revised Local Plan Submission 2017 released by WDC on Friday, March 3rd, at 5pm, we attach the maps of the proposed Development Boundary in place for both East Hoathly and Halland.

On this revised EH map, the field called Broomy Lodge, owned by WDC and currently on an Agricultural Lease, is now on the map. This means it could be up for development, alas meaning a third entrance / exit on the London Road. Today, Monday, March 6th we have been made aware that soil tests are being carried out on this field. Broomy Lodge is the field that lies between the playing fields and the allotments. It also borders the Bluebell Woods.

The revised Local Plan submission is a 528 page document. We are obviously still studying this and will update people asap.

Thank you.
